ENGL201: Introduction to Modernist Literature

Essay Review Session—End Game

Choose ONE (1) of the essay prompts provided below. Write an exam-style, close-reading essay on Hedda Gabler or End Game in response to this prompt. Your essay should be approximately 500 words (approximately 3-5 pages) long. It should include: a one-to-two sentence introduction; a thesis statement; body paragraphs with strong claims, textual evidence, and analysis; a one-to-two sentence conclusion.

You are permitted the printed text of the plays, with marginal notes and stickies (within reason). You are required to use textual evidence: paraphrase is acceptable; direct quotation is encouraged. You are welcome to draw on both course content and your own observations.

Examine the way that the themes of psychology and perception overlap in your chosen text. Tie your discussion to course concepts that we have discussed.
